

Mochi 74 - 2008

Boat ID: 1116

Date: April 7, 2019

The Mochi 74 Dolphin is a really “Big” Lobster. No one had built a 74-foot lobster boat before, so this proved a challenge to Victory Design, the designer chosen by Ferretti Group for the brand Mochi Dolphin. Could the designers retain the same beautiful lines and traditional features of the original lobster boat while moving a big step up the size scale? In the Mochi 74 Dolphin, Victory has certainly produced a very original design that will appeal to boat owners looking for something different. In fact, they have come up with a very viable alternative to the modern motoryacht.

General Additional Information

The one and only owner of this clean and immaculate yacht spent more than € 500.000,00 in customization and options on this unique Mochi 74. The galley has been moved in the lower deck and the salon is now much bigger and spacious; Mitsubishi Arg Stabilizer provides a comfortable navigation and an enlarged crew quarter (two cabins for three) permit a complete service on board.
